

Art Crawl

Final Fridays

Odd Months

Information for Artists:

What is the Art Crawl? The Crawl place on the final Friday of odd months, and is set up like gallery crawls (First Thursdays in San Francisco, Second Saturdays in Sacramento, First Fridays in Alameda, Art Murmur in Oakland), where the public goes from reception to reception. We'd like to grow this into a similar string of arts happenings.

We are now working with other businesses in the Crawl to create and promote the event, but are still acting as the main site for coordinating and marketing. We will give first preference to businesses that regularly exhibit visual art. There will be a few opportunities for artists that aren't already showing their art downtown. Please don't sign up if you will not be able to attend. Unless you show regularly within a downtown shop and the merchant agrees to act as your "rep" during the Crawl, ARTIST PARTICIPATION IS MANDATORY.

Note the Time Change: In order to have it coincide with another merchants' event, "Girl's Night Out", we need to make Crawl hours 6-9pm.

How does it work? Please advise us immediately by e-mail if you wish to participate, at info@lindaryanfineart.com, and advise of which month you want to enter. Then, immediately forward your application and check to Ryan Fine Art, 171 So. J Street. We may ask for more information about your work if we are unfamiliar with it.

We are limiting the amount of venues (and as a result, artists) purposely so that the public can make it to each exhibit. If we are at the limit, we will hold your application (and your check) until the next Crawl, if you wish.

In signing up, you agree to contact your business by the Saturday before the event to discuss placement and setup times, and you agree to pay the business you are showing in 25% of your sales on the night of the Crawl unless you have other arrangements the business, so please bring your checkbook with you. The business may be willing to allow you to leave your art up following the event ; it is up to them You will probably need to provide your own exhibition stands or display equipment. Check with your business.

If you are already exhibiting downtown: Please ensure that your business signs up by the deadline also in order for both of you to be included in the Crawl map.

How much does it cost?

The cost is $10.00 to Ryan Fine Art. We will market the event by online event calendars, a newspaper ad, press and event releases and flyers. Please also e-mail your client base to invite them and include them on the facebook invite.

Who do I contact for questions? Linda Ryan at info@lindaryanfineart.com

Week of the event—please contact Arthur Barinque at 925-548-1155 or Marjorie McMahan at 925-447-6288.
